Happy New Year from 71 Tattoo! 08 was a trip, and we can definatley say that we're ready for '09. '08 saw most of the original 71 crew move on. Jeff left to Portland Ore. , and Dave Briggs is no longer with us. Dave had some health issues that he has to deal with, he's Ok, and we wish him well. Christopher Scott aka " Scotty" formerly of Star tattoo has joined us. He does super awesome work, so stop by and see him. We've also added a gallery for him on the site, so make sure to visit his page. 71 Tattoo will also have artwork on display at the Atomic Cantina 315 Gold Sw Downtown ABQ for the " Pins and Needles" Tattoo Show January 23,24,25,26 '09. Come by and buy us a drink, come by and buy our artwork!!! Just wanted to say R.I.P Ron Asheton, original guitarist for seminal punk rockers The Stooges , one of our all time favorite bands, arguably one of the dirtiest rock guitarists ever , was found dead on 1/5/9, rock on brother, thanx for the tunes, and inspiration.....We also have added tons of new jewlrey , so come by and visit Mr. Hardt....cheers!!!
